

ArcPad Exercise 5: Finding the Latitude and Longitude of a Location in ArcPad

Open an existing or new ArcPad map. Add a background layers to the map such as the county boundaries and towns for the state.

1. From the Identify pulldown menu to the left of the Find button select “Advanced Select”.

2. Use the “Advance Select” button to select a point.

3. A “Feature Information” window will display the name of the location

- a. Tapping on “X-Y Coordinates” in the “Feature Information” window will display the Datum, Latitude and Longitude for the point.

