

Teacher Survey

Please help us make the Ag Mag more useful for you and your students.
Respond to these questions and add any comments or suggestions.

1. I use the Ag Mag for students in grade:

- a. 3
- b. 4
- c. 5
- d. other: _____

2. The Ag Mag reading level is usually:

- a. just right for my students
- b. challenging but doable
- c. way above their comprehension
- d. too simple

3. The Ag Mag math problems, science quizzes and other activities are usually:

- a. just right for my students
- b. challenging but doable
- c. way above their comprehension
- d. too simple

4. The Ag Mag:

- a. really helps my students understand today's agriculture
- b. is fun and interesting but not really educational
- c. is busy work for my students
- d. is something I send home for students to do with their families

5. The teacher's guide is:

- a. useful; I get the activities' answers
- b. great; I use the background information and my class does some of the extra activities
- c. worthless; I just hand out the student magazine

6. I use the Ag Mag:

- a. as soon as it arrives
- b. shortly after it arrives when it fits into our curriculum
- c. the following semester when it fits into our curriculum
- d. rarely; it just doesn't fit into our curriculum

7. I use the Ag Mag:

- a. as a special activity
- b. as part of a farm/agriculture unit
- c. other: _____

8. Here are ideas (including topics) for future Ag Mags:

9. The N.D. Agriculture in the Classroom Council could help me integrate agriculture into my classes more by:

Please return this form with any additional comments and suggestions to:

Becky Koch
Agriculture Communication
Morrill 5A, NDSU
Fargo, ND 58105-5655
Fax: 701 231-7044