

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT 2009 ENERGY/CLIMATE CHANGE INTERN

Spend your summer working with professionals working in the fields of energy and climate change for a national non-profit! Add to your resume and learn practical skills to complement your education, skills and interests! The National Center for Appropriate Technology (NCAT), which is a leader in its field, is looking for a qualified student to work in its office in Butte, Montana.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will have good communication skills and an interest or background in energy and/or climate change. The successful student will have an enthusiasm for environmental work that assists low income families and communities.

Opportunities: The intern will assist in developing a strategy for addressing climate issues as they pertain to low-income and disadvantaged groups. The intern will assist on a variety of projects including writing, editing, researching, marketing and community outreach.

Compensation: $8.00 per hour. The position may be full or part time and we are willing to work around your summer school schedule.

Deadline for Applications: May 31, 2009 or until a suitable candidate is selected.

If you're interested in this great opportunity, please send a copy of your resume, cover letter, and NCAT intern application to the address below. Make sure that your resume highlights your research and computer skills.
